IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

GRUBB MANAGEMENT INC, A/A/F
STERLING, COLLIER HILLS APTS

Plaintiff,

v.

MYRUS WEAVER AND ALL OTHER OCCUPANTS

Defendants.

In a petition for removal from the Magistrate
Court of FULTON County, Georgia

Civil Action No. 20ED161446

1:20-CV-5190

Notice of Removal

Comes now the Petitioner(s), MYRUS WEAVER and other Occupants as named defendants, in direct support of this request for removal of the above-captioned magistrate court matter to the United States District Court provided under at least 28 USC § 1331, 28 USC § 1367, 28 USC 1441(b), 28 USC § 1441(c), 28 USC § 1441(e), 28 USC § 1443(1), 28 USC § 1443(2), and/or 28 USC § 1446(d), and on the federal questions involved, herein alleges, states, and provides the following:

JURISDICTION

This District Court of the United States has original, concurrent, and supplementary jurisdiction over this cause of action, pursuant to the authorities cited above, including, but not limited to the following, to-wit: 28 USC § 1331, 28 USC § 1367, 28 USC 1441(b), 28 USC § 1441(c), 28 USC § 1441(e), 28 USC § 1443(1), 28 USC § 1443(2), and/or 28 USC § 1446(d).

The District Court of the United States is an Article III court with authority to hear questions arising under the Constitution, Laws, and Treaties of the United States, including but not limited to the Bill of Rights, the Ninth Amendment, the Eleventh Amendment, the original Thirteenth Amendment, the Fourteenth Amendment, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, with Reservations. See the Article VI Supremacy Clause of the Constitution of the United States of America, as lawfully amended (hereinafter "U.S. Constitution").

SUPPLEMENTAL SUPPORT FOR REMOVAL

“A court of the United States, quite properly, is loathe to interfere in the internal affairs of a State. The sovereignty of the States, within the boundaries reserved to them by the Constitution, is one of the keystones upon which our government was founded and is of vital importance to its preservation. But in Clause 2 of Article VI of the Constitution of the United States, it is provided:

This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, and Things in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.

Hence, any State law, which is in conflict with the United States Constitution or a law enacted by Congress in pursuance thereof, cannot be enforced. Nor can a valid State law be applied in a way to thwart the exercise of a right guaranteed by the Constitution and laws enacted by Congress in pursuance thereof.

So, where it is alleged that certain State laws do so conflict or are being utilized, not for legitimate State purposes, but as an expedient to deprive plaintiffs of the rights guaranteed them by the Constitution of the United States and the laws of Congress enacted under the authority thereof, a court of the United States must entertain the suit and, if the allegations are proven, and injunctive relief appears to be required, it must issue the injunction”

Nat'l Ass'n for Advancement of Colored People v. Thompson, 357 F.2d 831, 832-33 (5th Cir. 1966)

“Even though state law creates appellant's causes of action, its case might still “arise under” the laws of the United States if a well-pleaded complaint established that its right to relief under state law requires resolution of a substantial question of federal law in dispute between the parties.

Franchise Tax Bd. of State of Cal. v. Constr. Laborers Vacation Trust for S. California, 463 U.S. 1, 13, 103 S. Ct. 2841, 2848, 77 L. Ed. 2d 420 (1983) Article III of the United States Constitution endows federal courts with the power to hear cases “arising under” federal law. Merrell Dow Pharmaceuticals Inc. v. Thompson, 478 U.S. 804, 807, 106 S.Ct. 3229, 92 L.Ed.2d 650 (1986); U.S. Const., art. III, § 2. Congress subsequently 728*811 codified that endowment, thereby creating general federal-question jurisdiction. Merrell Dow, 478 U.S. at 807, 106 S.Ct. 3229; 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (2006). In the vast majority of cases, federal-question jurisdiction under section 1331 exists because the well-pleaded complaint alleges a cause of action that was created by federal law. Merrell Dow, 478 U.S. at 808, 106 S.Ct. 3229. However, the United States Supreme Court also determined long ago that in certain circumstances, a cause of action created by state law may “arise under” federal law, conferring federal-question jurisdiction, where it implicates a significant federal issue. Grable & Sons Metal Products, Inc. v. Darue Engineering & Manufacturing, 545 U.S. 308, 312, 125 S.Ct. 2363, 162 L.Ed.2d 257 (2005) (citing Hopkins v. Walker, 244 U.S. 486, 37 S.Ct. 711, 61 L.Ed. 1270 (1917)). There is no “‘single, precise, all-embracing’ ” test to determine when federal-question jurisdiction exists over state-law claims. Grable, 545 U.S. at 314, 125 S.Ct. 2363 (quoting Christianson v. Colt Industries Operating Corp., 486 U.S. 800, 821, 108 S.Ct. 2166, 100 L.Ed.2d 811 (1988) (Stevens, J., concurring, joined by Blackmun, J.)). Early on, the Supreme Court held that a state-law claim could give rise to federal-question jurisdiction as long as it “appears from the [complaint] that the right to relief depends upon the construction or application of [federal law].” Smith v. Kansas City Title & Trust Co., 255 U.S. 180, 199, 41 S.Ct. 243, 65 L.Ed. 577 (1921).”

Magnetek, Inc. v. Kirkland & Ellis, LLP, 2011 IL App (1st) 101067, 954 N.E.2d 803, 811, reh'g denied (July 28, 2011), appeal allowed, 112910, 2011 WL 7064726 (Ill. Nov. 30, 2011)

“Federal-question jurisdiction is usually invoked by plaintiffs pleading a cause of action created by federal law, but this Court has also long recognized that such jurisdiction will lie over some state-law claims that implicate significant federal issues, see, e.g., Smith v. Kansas City Title & Trust Co., 255 U.S. 180, 41 S.Ct. 243, 65 L.Ed. 577.”

Grable & Sons Metal Products, Inc. v. Darue Eng'g & Mfg., 545 U.S. 308, 308, 125 S. Ct. 2363, 2364, 162 L. Ed. 2d 257 (2005)

RECORD OF STATE PROCEEDINGS

Petitioner(s) is/are now proceeding on the basis of the presumption that the GEORGIA magistrate court record will be made available to this Honorable Court upon Notice and Demand for Mandatory Judicial Notice, pursuant to Rules 201 and 902 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Full Faith and Credit Clause contained under Article IV of the U.S. Constitution, and 28 U.S.C. § 1449.

INCORPORATION OF PRIOR PLEADINGS

Petitioner(s) hereby incorporate(s) by reference all pleadings, papers, and effects heretofore filed or otherwise lodged within the state proceedings the same as if fully set forth herein.
(H.I).

ALLEGATIONS

1. Defendant(s) specifically complains on matters which go to related federal questions, such as federal civil jurisdiction within the several States of the Union, and the denial or the inability to enforce, in the courts of a State, one or more rights under any law providing for the equal rights of citizens of the United States, or of all persons within the jurisdiction thereof, to-wit:
2. Defendant(s) complains of various systematic and premeditated deprivations of fundamental Rights guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution, by the Constitution of the State of GEORGIA, as lawfully amended (hereinafter "GEORGIA Constitution"), and by federal law, and which deprivations are violations of 18 U.S.C. §§ 241 and 242. See also 28 U.S.C. § 1652.
3. Plaintiff(s) lacks standing pursuant to O.C.G.A 9-2-44.
4. Defendant(s) complains he has a right to Fair and Impartial Proceedings and a right to equal and adequate protection under the laws of the State of Georgia.
5. Defendant has been denied the constitutional right to a jury trial.¹
6. THE VALUE FAR EXCEEDS THE JURISDICTION OF THE MAGISTRATE COURT

NOTICE TO PARTIES

¹ The right to a jury trial in a dispossessory proceeding is mandated by the Georgia Constitution. If the proceeding is in a state or superior court, the jury trial should occur in that court. However, jury trials are prohibited in magistrate court by the terms of O.C.G.A. § 15-10-41 (GCA § 24-602). The Supreme Court has held that the constitutional right to a jury trial in a proceeding filed in magistrate court is satisfied by virtue of the right of the parties to a de novo appeal before a jury in the appropriate state or superior court. The Supreme Court has stated that such a procedure does not amount to the denial of a jury trial, but rather a mere procedural delay before receiving a jury trial. Thomas v. Wells Fargo Credit Corp., 200 Ga. App. 592, 409 S. E. 2d 71 (1991); Hill v. Levenson, 259 Ga. 395, 383 S. E. 2d 110 (1989). The Georgia Supreme Court has held that a pre-litigation contractual waiver of jury trial in a commercial lease is not enforceable; this principle would be equally applicable to residential leases. American Southern Financial, Ltd. v. Yang, 264 Ga. 513, 448 S. E. 2d 450 (1994). For an article regarding whether the right to a jury trial may be contractually waived, see Loewy, Waiving Jury Trials in Commercial Leasing Cases, Probate and Property, Vol. 3., No. 6, (Nov.-Dec. 1989), at page 50. Ga. Landlord & Tenant - Breach & Remedies § 5-17 (4th ed.)

Defendant(s) now and hereby provide(s) his formal Notice of the above to all interested parties, of record or otherwise, within and surrounding the above-captioned Magistrate court proceedings.

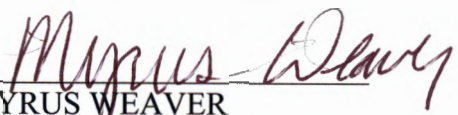

SUMMARY AND PRAYER

Defendant(s) reiterates that his request for removal to this Court is not just about a supported and reasonable expectation of the future manifest deprivation of his various civil rights within said magistrate court, but also that such a deliberately unlawful pattern of ‘wrongful dispossession’ by GRUBB MANAGEMENT INC, A/A/F STERLING, COLLIER HILLS APTS

Without the immediate intervention, and the exercise of full jurisdiction and authority by this Honorable Court in removing said lower state proceedings, the Defendant(s) will be otherwise subjected to egregious denial and inability to enforce in said magistrate court one or more rights under the laws providing for the equal rights of citizens of the United States, and will be likewise unlawfully forced to suffer manifest and irreparable injuries therein, without reasonable remedy.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned Defendant(s), MYRUS WEAVER and Other Occupants, now pray(s) for removal of the above-captioned magistrate court proceedings into, and under, the jurisdiction of this United States District Court, with all speed, and for all other relief deemed just and proper in the premises.

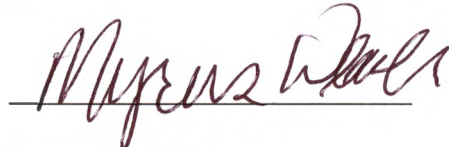

Respectfully submitted,
